INTRODUCTION

Who I am

A Spaniard in Germany. Three record labels. An anthem with Messi. And a European tour that keeps adding dates.

S am Charly Gitanos. Singer, guitarist and composer. I started in 1988 with my first album under the artistic name Adonays, and since then I have never stopped: with Gitanos I signed with Sony Music Argentina, with my son Cristian I released De Tal Palo on Sony Music Spain, and between 2018 and 2019 I worked with Sony Music Germany in Berlin.

In 2014 I composed for UNICEF the football solidarity anthem Se enciende el mundo, which brought together Lionel Messi, Ángel Di María, Mascherano, Maxi Rodríguez and Banega. All royalties were donated to the organisation.

Today I lead from Stuttgart my European tour A Piece of Spain, a two-hour Mediterranean production designed for theatres, festivals and premium galas throughout the DACH region. My sound blends rumba, flamenco and Mediterranean pop with a clear target audience: the Best Aged 50+ who value craft over spectacle.

"I am a rumbero. I do flamenco when the song demands it."
